Stormy Session Marks Closing of Legislature--Railroad Administration Without $750,000,000 Appropriation Must Turn Railroads Back to Private Ownership--President Will Not Call Extra Session of Congress to Pass Needed Legislation

CONGRESS WANTS IRISH QUESTION SETTLED IN PARIS

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 4.—The House early today by a vote of 216 to 11 adopted the resolution expressing the hope that the peace conference would favorably consider the claims of Ireland to the right of self determination.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, March 4.—Congress went into the final hours of its long war session today with the Republican filibuster against general legislation completely out of control and with leaders of both sides conceding that the general deficiency bill with $750,000,000 for the railroad administration would fall in the face of unrelenting obstruction by a Republican group. Some spokesmen of the administration said failure of this measure would mean almost immediate return of the roads to their owners because the government could not retain and finance them without the appropriation.

By the middle of April it was said the railroad administration's funds would be exhausted and only an extra session before then could make it possible to continue government operation of the roads. Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, and other Republican leaders were represented as desiring to see the railroad appropriation made but unable to check the filibuster which originally started against the big appropriation bill.

Republican leaders decided to make no further attempt to get action on the Lodge resolution to record the Senate against the constitution of the League of Nations as drawn. As a counter measure Senator Lewis of Illinois, Democratic whip, prepared a resolution proposing that the Senate approve "all proper efforts" of the President to effect a League of Peace.

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson during a discussion of the legislative jam with Democratic leader Martin early today was said to have reiterated his determination not to call an extra session of Congress before he returns from France.

Washington, March 4.—Congress adjourned at noon today in the midst of a Republican filibuster in the Senate that killed a long list of important measures. Among the bills that failed was one appropriating $750,000,000 for the railroad administration. The only two important measures that ran the gauntlet of the last 48 hours of filibustering were the Victory Liberty Loan bill and the billion dollar wheat guarantee bill. Democratic leaders realized the situation was hopeless and the gavel ending the long great war session and the 65th Congress actually tapped at noon. Just before adjournment President Wilson in his capitol office authorized that notice to the Republicans that their efforts to force an immediate extra session had failed, that he was unshaken in his determination not to call Congress until his work at the peace conference was done.

Washington, March 4.—Upon the adjournment of Congress today with important legislation killed by a Republican Senate filibuster, President Wilson issued a statement declaring that "a group of men in the Senate have Assembly in session."

deliberately chosen to embarrass the administration of the government, to impair the financial interests of the railway system of the country."

Washington, March 4.—President Wilson today signed the wheat guarantee bill carrying an appropriation of one billion dollars to maintain the guaranteed price of $2.25 a bushel.

BERLIN IN TERROR OF THE SPARTACANS

(By Associated Press)

Copenhagen, March 4.—The Prussian government has declared a state of siege in the police districts of Berlin and suburbs in order "to protect the back of the working people from famine and terror of the minority."

Minister of War, Noske, a dispatch from Berlin says, has assumed executive power.

Strong detachments of troops already have left Nuremberg. Notice of the advance on Munich caused commotion among the delegates and Congress adjourned at once.

MARSHAL FOCH DEMANDS HUN SHIPS AT ONCE

WARDENS GOLDTHWAITE AND RICKER MAKE BIG HAUL SHORT LOBSTERS FOR PORTSMOUTH

Bliddeford, March 4.—What is believed to have been the biggest haul of short lobsters ever made at the Pool was accomplished at daylight Sunday morning by Wardens Walter A. Ricker and Herman Goldthwaite. Goldthwaite was appointed recently and this was his first haul of "bugs" and other grades of lobsters of illegal length. The "lobster" were found in blind traps anchored in the "cut" at the Pool. The wardens had received a tip that the lobsters were secreted, as above described and that a sleep was to come over from Cape Porpoise some time after midnight tonight and transport them to Portsmouth, where there is a far greater demand for them than the local market can supply.

According to the wardens certain parties alongshore have been doing a thriving illegal business in "short" of lobsters and shipping their catches out of the state by the highway or by rail. Recently they decided to change their tactics and ship by water.

Among the thousand and odd lobsters taken in this haul there were only 12 of legal length and there were about 100 so short that they would be classed as "bugs" and of illegal length even in New Hampshire or Massachusetts, which states allow the taking of lobsters 3 inches in length. In Maine they must be at least 10-12 inches in length in order that they may be legally taken and sold.

The participation of Herman Goldthwaite in this second haul came as a surprise to many persons at the Pool for only a very few people knew that he had been appointed a fish warden.

CHARLES DARWIN ON MUSIC
"My mind seems to have been a kind of machine for grinding general laws out of facts. I have lost the high or aesthetic taste and with it a great source of happiness. If I had to live my life again I would have made it a rule to listen to some music at least once a week."

"I honestly think if there were a popular election in Germany today the Kaiser would be elected President of the German Republic."

This statement was made by L. E. Kerstein in an interview yesterday afternoon. He has just returned from a two months' visit to France for the United States Government. He was head of a commission from the Quartermaster Department to investigate the whole question of supplies and an agent in the United States Army—to get a line on the supplies of all kind already in France and to see what disposition could be made of any surplus not actually needed.

The event was planned as a surprise "show" to Miss Coffin in view of her coming marriage. A number of young girl friends, including the "Pathfinders" of which Miss Coffin is a member were present and it was a genuine surprise to her as she thought it was just a meeting of the club which she was attending. The "show" was given in a unique manner. At the first surprise was over Miss Coffin expressed much appreciation and pleasure for the gifts, which were all of linen with the exception of a beautiful tray. Another surprise awaited the young people, when they were invited to the dining room, where the table presented an attractive appearance. In the center of the white cover was a large bouquet of red lilies, from each pink a blue ribbon was tied which ran to each plate. On the stem of each pink was attached a white card with two gold hearts, and a each guest was presented with a pink, on the card were found the names of Miss Rachel Coffin, Emery and Mr. Fred Walter, Draper, that young lady telling this time to announce her engagement to her friends. After the daily luncheon was served, music from the Victrola was rendered. At a late hour all left for their homes having enjoyed to the utmost the pleasant occasion.

The Hotel Pepperell was a scene of amusement last evening just before midnight (rather after the lights were out). Six of the guests gathered about the office to view a young man of this town, who had been lurking around for an hour or so, evidently waiting for the lights to go out. He seemed somewhat bewildered when he was questioned by his followers who pursued him to the top of the hotel to "post haste." His exclamation was that he was in search of a man who had an automobile for sale.

COIN DEPARTMENT

One of the main causes of value on old coins is the demand of the collectors for that particular coin. It is not always the age or the rarity of it as for instance, old Spanish or Mexican Silver, a few centuries old, will very seldom bring over their face value, and will bring more when melted up for buttons; and on the other hand there are a number of comparatively recent U. S. coins, not scarce, that bring quite large premiums, all due to the demand of collectors for those particular coins.

The Coin Editor will be glad to answer any question regarding the value of any coins you may have.

Ten new countries at least are one of the results of the war; they are Hungary, Poland, Lithuania, Estonia, Latvia, Finland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Armenia, and the Ukraine. Three more possible ones are Rumania, Wurttemberg, and Saxony, and possibly a few more.

NEW SUNDAY LAW CONDEMNED BY THE N. H. CHURCHES

Spirited Contest Expected Before Passage.

Concord, March 3.—A flood of protests are coming into the state legislature against the enactment of the wide open Sunday law which passed the house of representatives and is now in the senate to be acted upon this week. Petitions, letters and remonstrances of all kinds are coming in from the "church people," commonly called, and the thing that appears to have particularly aroused their ire is the provision for Sunday baseball.

In general the opposition claims that the old "blue laws" of New Hampshire were good enough for the forefathers and should be good enough today; that it may be admitted that there is constant and general violation of them; but that the public authorities and the police generally show common sense in the enforcement and that the passage of this law this year would lead to still further legislation next session to allow Sunday business by theatres, dance halls, professional games of all kinds and many kinds of merchandising.

THUMBNAIL SERMON

"He gained from heaven—twas all he wished—a friend"—Gray's Elegy. The "Small Boy" and his daddy are glad that "George" had a birthday. It is awesome to contemplate the great outcome of small beginnings. If "George" had not had a birthday, the "Small Boy" and his daddy could not have been together on February twenty-second, they could not have had dinner together, nor could they have had a royal good time with each other, but "George" did have a birthday, and the rest naturally followed, and, miracle dicta, "Institutional efficiency" did not even falter in its systematic course.

"The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."—The Great Logician.

And then came the first Sunday in the month and the "Small Boy" and his daddy had another whole day together. They went bird hunting, and they found 'em. He was an incidental feature of friendship. Institutional efficiency was not disturbed. There was no skeleton at the feast. Everybody laughed and was happy, everybody tried to make the other fellow feel better, and the "heart bowed down" sensed a ray of hope, the mists of sorrow were dispelled, and the weary gained renewed courage for their tasks. "In fighting life's battle the question is whether

Who Benefits by High Prices?

You feel that retail meat prices are too high.

Your retailer says he has to pay higher prices to the packers.

Swift & Company prove that out of every dollar the retailer pays to the packers for meat, 2 cents is for packers' profit, 13 cents is for operating expenses, and 85 cents goes to the stock raiser; and that the prices of live stock and meat move up and down together.

The live-stock raiser points to rising costs of raising live stock.

Labor reminds us that higher wages must go hand in hand with the new cost of living.

No one, apparently, is responsible. No one, apparently, is benefited by higher prices and higher income.

We are all living on a high-priced scale. One trouble is, that the number of dollars has multiplied faster than the quantity of goods, so that each dollar buys less than formerly.

Portsmouth, N. H., Tuesday, March 4, 1919.

The Curse of Bolshevism.

It is hardly to be expected that Bolshevism will develop in this country as it appears in the Old World, notwithstanding the fact that some claim that Bolshevism and the doctrines of the I. W. W. are substantially the same thing, and the further fact that the United States is not free from the unrest that is disturbing the world at the present time.

All know the conditions that have prevailed in Russia for a long time, and late news from Germany is far from encouraging if the reports are reliable. General strikes there are said to be extending, disorder is increasing and railway traffic has been interfered with in places. There are parts of the country in which the authorities fear a reign of terror.

This is disquieting news, but perhaps the situation is not greatly to be wondered at in view of all the circumstances. The nation which started out to subdue the world and enrich herself with the fruits of conquest has been brought to her knees. Her people are disappointed, and many of them are disgusted with the rulers who led them into their awful predicament. The country is without a stable government and different groups are in a mood to make trouble.

Out of the mighty upheaval through which the world has been during the last four years this sort of thing has sprung, and the nations are faced with the problem of subduing the outbreaks and bringing order out of chaos. There is no reason to doubt that this will be done, but the task is one of vast proportions, calling for cool heads and firm hands all along the line.

As before stated, there is little reason to fear that the unrest in this country will lead to violence on any extended scale, but unless the situation is properly handled there may be industrial disturbances of consequence. Signs of this are already appearing. Thus far increase of wages has been the salve universally applied, but this cannot go on forever. There is an end to the longest road and the time must come when wages can go no higher.

And there is another thing which must be guarded against by all classes if the nation is to progress industrially and in other ways. This is the splitting up of the people into groups each seeking its own welfare regardless of the common interest. It must be remembered that the country is not for capital alone or for labor alone; that it is one great whole and that if any part suffers from excessive demands all must suffer.

What is needed at this time is calmness and a spirit of fairness all round. So long as the country is afflicted with classes each trying to get the better of the others there will be no real peace and prosperity, no matter how big profits or wages may be in special cases. If there is to be prosperity worthy of the name it must be shared by all the people of the country, and to this end there should be diligent effort to avoid Bolshevism in any form.

Welcome to the High School should be the announcement that hereafter college entrance examinations will be conducted at the school instead of at Exeter. This will enable the graduates to take their examinations amid familiar surroundings, which will be a decided advantage to many of those who have prepared for college courses.

William Hohenzollern is calling on the German government—such as it is—for money, a proceeding that would have been entirely unnecessary if he had won the war. But, thanks to the forces which he said could never arrive "in time," he didn't win.

Ample provision has been made for the instruction of income tax payers; and if they fail to improve the first course there will be another which will not be so pleasant. These tax payers are not dealing with the village constable.

A war correspondent says he was kissed by at least one thousand women when he entered a certain French city with the British forces. One Richmond Pearson Hobson will have to look to his laurels.

Maine is talking of changing her election day to the date on which the other states vote. But such action would rob the country's political leaders of what they have always regarded as a valuable forecast.

With the farmers strongly in opposition the question of daylight saving is becoming an issue. And on such an issue as this it would seem that the farmers should have a fair hearing.

March came in with exceptional mildness. May it keep up the good work and complete a record that is beyond the memory of the proverbial "oldest inhabitant."

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

The Opinion of One Who Heard Mr. Pinkham.

Editor of the Herald,

The Metal Trades Council of Portsmouth has created a good deal of interest during the past two months and their Open Forum has become justly popular through their broad minded manner of holding discussions but it seems that popularity like familiarity breeds contempt, and when such meetings become a public nuisance it is time the bright light of publicity was turned on.

The lecture (1) delivered by their latest importation "Pinkham" was a disgrace to any organization making a bid for public opinion and a highly "Kultur" insult to the intelligence of any audience. To attempt to criticize "Pinkham" would be futile, an object for criticism is expected to have some merit, and "Pinkham" arguments were like unto the wisdom of God in that they were beyond all human understanding. "Pinkham," who has more "fido" than "Pink" in him, is not to be taken seriously as he took the trouble of explaining very early in his discourse that it was possible for a man to make such highly exaggerated and ridiculous statements that he may lay claim to being a humorist.

If this be true "Pinkham" is a humorist of the first water. He is without a doubt a genius in this style of humor. And who is to point out the line of demarcation between "genius" and "insanity"? "Pinkham" however spoiled the fun by laughing at his own jokes, but this will doubtless be excused when we consider that genius is bound to be eccentric, which also excuses him for contradicting himself so often, an when he almost tearfully regretted the delay over the conclusion of peace in Europe saying it was undoubtedly the most important object before the world today, and immediately started playing and ridiculing President Wilson for not devoting his time to questions of government ownership in this country before returning to conclude the conference in Europe. The speaker bewailed the fact that Germany had not been called in to the conference and pleaded for "justice" to our late enemies, forgetting no doubt that there were to meet out "justice" to Germany there would be nothing left of our late (?) enemies, and failing to give us credit for "tempering justice with mercy." Long before the speaker finished he had proved himself so closely related to the "Bolsheviks" as he is painted in his reddest, that there was no room for argument, besides "Pinkham" is the kind of speaker who takes it for granted that his own opinion ought to be sufficient to prove an argument. As one of his recent admirers remarked "fido" could argue with him. There being no fields in the audience no acclamations were forthcoming and a good portion of his hearers left the hall during his discourse. A few remarks from one or two of his hearers proved conclusively that nothing was to be expected from "Pinkham" but his sponsors, the Metal Trades Council, ought to be expected to give the public a little more information about the gentleman. What, for example, was "Pinkham" doing during the time our country was at war? The fact that he is neither confined in a mad-house nor serving a prison sentence implies that he wasn't "lecturing," apparently his color was then "yellow" instead of "red."

Does the Forum Committee really believe that Portsmouth is a good place from which to launch "Bolshevism" into this state? Or is it some other "ism"?

A. HANDLEMAN.

A Comment on the Public Forum.

Once more the forum advertised to speak upon one topic and about another. As usual the speaker was indisposed and someone else delivered the stuff. The subject chosen to suit the speaker was that of "The League of Nations," a very interesting and vital question of the day, if it were treated with the seriousness the question deserves. The speaker, however, wandered aimlessly for four-fifths of the time, championing his cause and Prof. Ebert. Yes, it must be a hard pill to swallow for these gentlemen who desired to see "Kultur" conquer.

As for the elucidation upon the questions of the League of Nations the gentleman spoke of everything that wasn't in the text, but waved the pamphlet in the air most dramatically and wound up his speech in an attitude of prayer that we leave it to the "Good will and trust" of presumably Germany and its "Gott," but the substance of that talk was Mr. Woodrow Wilson as a humorist, but the gentleman admitted that he himself made a poor attempt at humor, and a very poor attempt it was, besides the speaker did not get a glimpse of himself as he stood upon the platform, for can anyone imagine the seascam and buffoonery of a gentleman in ministerial garb, collar buttoned in the back, going through the antics of a theatrical rehearsal upon the Portsmouth public forum? I do believe that should the gentleman have any degree of earnestness about himself, he would immediately apply for a position on one of the vaudeville circuits.

In the evening I was fortunate to attend a lecture at the Congregational church on Market square upon the same subject, delivered by Prof. Hart of Harvard. It was delivered in a scholarly and rational manner and let us hope that we get more of it.

WHY THE CAR WAS LATE

(By P. D. & Y. Post).

So. Berwick, Me. Feb. 23, 1919.

Mr. W. G. Nelson

Dear Sir: I write to tell you

The things of today

For some one else may tell them

In a very different way;

And in every weighty problem,

Use you the case decide.

It's always well to take the time

For each to tell his side.

Today I'm far from joyous,

I do not turn a song,

For luck has been against me

And everything's gone wrong.

We were held up at the Junction,

As my yellow-bill will state,

For a trolley-pole we didn't need

And left eight minutes late.

I should have rung up Central

And held a little chat

If I had known 'twould take so long

Or just what they were at.

We went to Salmon Falls and back

As quickly as could be

And got back to the Y again

At just four twenty-three.

Just here comes in the story

That prompts my little rhyme

For some one missed my car sir

They weren't there on time.

Some one called my attention

Just as I rang the bell

I saw them half way to the park

And softly murmured—well

There's a car in twenty minutes

And wrote three minutes late

If we stop we'll lose another two;

I guess they'd better wait,

When we called on a day

The orders given me

Were mixed up with some good advice

In business plain and free.

But we were late on time again

For our day's work was over

And left at just six thirty

On our last trip out of Dover.

What would you do in times like this?

(If I were you and you were me)

I feel as I was between

The devil and deep sea.

—R. E. S.

WOULD OUST NEW GERMAN ASSEMBLY

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, Monday, March 3.—The National Spartacus League and the German Communist Association have issued an appeal for a general strike and the overthrow of the National Assembly and the present Republic. Meetings were held today at various factories for the purpose of deciding whether to respond to the appeal. The workers of the Schwartz plant who are among the most radical in Berlin, have voted for a general strike, 12,000 men being affected. This is the first response to the Spartacus appeal.

Paris, March 3.—Bavarian troops opposed to the radical government are marching on Munich according to a new paper dispatch from Zurich. This movement was made at the Socialist and Workers Congress in Munich.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Are Touring State for Navy Recruiting. A navy traveling recruiting party will visit several Maine towns during the week. On March 4 and 5 they will be at the Rockland post office, at Wiscasset the 6th and 7th, at Bath the 8th and 9th, and at Brunswick, March 7th and 8th.

Female Operatives Reduced. There are now about three hundred women working in the Electrical Shop. The number was at one time 450.

The Great Lakes Craft. Six enlisted men were in custody to day at the Great Lakes naval training station for alleged graft in connection with discharges of seamen, which was brought to light by the death of Samuel H. Moss, known also as Sunny Moscowvitz, a discharged seaman, who died of typhoid fever, being brought here from Detroit, where he was arrested.

Lieut. Hill Back to Duty. Lieut. and Mrs. W. L. Hill have returned from a two weeks pleasure trip to New York, Washington and Columbus, Ohio.

EXETER

Exeter, March 3.—Roy Maxfield of Londonderry was held in $1,000 bail which he furnished for the May term of superior court this morning on a charge of larceny of a violin and other articles to the value of $25, which it is alleged he took from the cottage of P. D. Smith in Londonderry on Feb. 16. He was brought to Exeter this morning by Deputy Sheriff Fred L. Corson of Candia and arraigned in the Exeter municipal court, before Judge U. A. Skute. The state was represented by County Solicitor William H. Sleeper.

Judge W. H. Sawyer was present this morning at the probate court building, where the docket in the Rockingham county superior court was called. Various court matters were settled by the members of the bar present. Sheriff Ceylon Spence of Portsmouth was present in his official capacity.

Mrs. Helen M. McLaughlin, emergency home demonstration agent of the Rockingham County Farmers' association, will speak at the meeting of the Exeter Women's club tomorrow afternoon on "Efficiency in the Home."

Samuel A. Jackson, aged 74 years, died at his home in Kittery, Me., this morning. He leaves a wife and an adopted daughter, Miss Linnie Jackson.

ALLIED NAVAL LOSSES

WERE 803,000 TONS

London, March 4.—The total allied naval losses in the war aggregated 803,000 tons, according to an estimate sent by Reuters' Paris correspondent. Of this loss the British portion was 350,000 tons. The central powers lost 415,000, the German total being 350,000 tons.

The Westminster Gazette says: "When we learn that in big ships alone we sacrificed 12 battleships, three battle cruisers and 25 cruisers we get some notion of the tremendous character of the effort that was necessary to enable the navy to emerge from the war vastly more powerful than it was at the end of 1914."

MAINE PAPER CORRECTED ON BRIDGE MATTER

Our experience is that comparatively few Maine automobiles leave the state by the Kittery-Portsmouth bridge, or any other route, says the Waterville Sentinel. Recently the Sentinel does not realize that from 400 to 600 automobiles pass over this bridge every hour in the day during the summer season, as well as many other hundreds during the remainder of the year, and that the Maine tag is carried on a very large percentage of them.—Portland Press.

KANDRAVI—DOWNING.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Catholic church this morning by Rev. Father Sullivan, when Peter Kandravi of Philadelphia, a seaman in the navy, was married to Miss Anna Downing of this city. The young people will reside here until Mr. Kandravi is discharged from the service.

WILSON DISAPPROVES DEATH SENTENCE IN PRIVATE'S CASE

Washington, March 4.—Disapproved by President Wilson of the death sentence imposed by court martial upon Private Max Sandlin, a conscientious objector at Camp Funston, Kansas, was announced Monday by the war department. A sentence of 15 years' imprisonment was approved. Sandlin refused to obey an order of a superior officer to clean up a pile of refuse.

Major Gen. Leonard Wood, commanding at Camp Funston at the time of the trial, recommended that the sentence be commuted to confinement at hard labor for 25 years. "In view of the fact that at the present time the ends of discipline of this command do not demand the execution of the extreme penalty."

THE C. L. U. LADIES' NIGHT

Realizing that upon the physical well being and the mental training of the child depends the future welfare of any community, and that the child comes immediately under the influence of the mother and the teacher, at the next meeting of the Central Labor Union, Thursday evening, March 13, the evening will be given over to the ladies of the city, His Excellency the Governor, His Honor the Mayor, members of the City Council, and members of the School Board are cordially invited to be present—provided they are accompanied by their ladies and promise to keep until. No more men will be permitted to speak. The ladies are to have the first and the last word.

Miss Lucius H. Taylor has consented to preside. The first speaker will be Mrs. Charles Hill of the Organized Churches, who will discuss the good that is being done and wherein all may help. Mrs. Mary I. Wood of the School Board, will tell of the need of a new school house. And Miss Alice Middleton, principal of the Farrington School, will explain why they want a play ground. It shall be a "Ladies' Night" in truth and in fact.

"FOR HEAVENS SAKE KILL IT"

"KILL that old I had such a fun of people between five and six looking for that room that I advertised in 'The Herald' I was tempted to summon the police."

No matter what you advertise the Herald produces results. The above exclamation was from Mr. Jackson when he called at the office today. If you have anything to dispose of let The Herald attempt to do for you. You will get the surplus of your life. Everybody in Portsmouth, Kittery and surrounding towns read Portsmouth's popular daily. It is the home paper, and is read daily by more than twelve thousand people. If you want to test its pulling power just advertise a furnished room for rent. Why not sell that second hand furniture you have stored in those attic rooms. You can make fifty dollars by the expenditure of forty cents.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards' produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "back brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—a headache—a "liver" and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

EVERYBODY APPROVES THE SCHOOL HOUSE BILL

Board of Instruction, and Council Take Action For a New School Building and Legislature Will be ASKed for Relief

With both the Board of Instruction and the City Council expressing unanimous favor for a new school house, the Portsmouth delegation will unanimously agree to approve a bill in the legislature to allow the city to exceed its debt limit to the sum of $75,000 for the purpose of erecting a new school house. This action was taken at a meeting of the Board of Instruction and at a later meeting of the City Council at which the delegation to the legislature were present and took part in the discussion. The Board of Education met at seven o'clock and received the report of the special committee on the matter of school house accommodation and extension. This report was accepted and adopted. The special committee in dealing with the present situation of the Farragut, Franklin and Spaulding districts, also went into the future of the Lafayette and Haven districts and said that in the not far distant future with the present growth of the city, that a new school house will have to be considered for that section. The report of the committee which is of special interest at this time is as follows:

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 27, 1919. To the Board of Instruction.

Your special committee appointed to investigate the needs with reference to increased school accommodations beg to submit the following report. There are three distinct phases of the problem of accommodations herein considered. (1) Inadequate play-ground space. (2) Unit school buildings. (3) Crowded rooms.

1. The inadequate play-ground at the Farragut building has been a long-standing injustice to the children of that neighborhood. The difficulty has increased with the increase of numbers until the present time when the enrollment numbers 360, an excess of sixty or seventy pupils. Recreational games in which the teachers have taken a great interest have had to be played in the highway. The danger to the children has been great and constant, and the only reason that serious accidents have not occurred is the watchfulness of the several teachers who are always on the ground.

The committee recommends that land adjoining the school lot be acquired in order that this condition may be relieved.

2. The Franklin building has long been a disgrace and reproach to the city and a menace to the children who attend there. The rooms are lacking in light, heat and ventilation; the hallways are narrow and the stairs dark; the basement is unsanitary; the primary room is crowded, forty-eight children being enrolled. For years attempts have been made to bring this building up to reasonable requirements, but the committee agree that further expenditure is unwarranted because of diminishing returns upon the money spent.

It is recommended that this building be declared unfit for school purposes and that it be disposed of; it is further recommended that a lot be secured and a building erected on such location as to best serve the needs of the children at present attending the Franklin and Spaulding schools.

3. Crowded rooms. A condition which may be at any time beyond control exists in connection with the crowded rooms of the Haven, Lafayette and Cabot school buildings. The conditions at the present time is here given:

Haven	Lafayette	Cabot
6 41	6 46	1-3 42
5-6 35	5 39	3-2 43
5 41	5 38	1 35
4 47	5 35
3 46	4 39
1-3 34	2-2 48
3 46	1 37
1 43

It will be noted that all but two of these rooms have over thirty-five pupils.

THE MEN IN CLASS A1

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition, not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The body functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL, HAZEL OIL Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work. Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL, HAZEL OIL Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported HAZEL OIL—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. Remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL Brand. In three sizes, sealed packages.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother. If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, chronic sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today will save a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

pile: nine of the rooms over forty pupils. No teacher can do justice to school having such excessive members; moreover it is detrimental to the health of the children to be crowded into rooms in this way.

The committee recommends that definite plans be made for the erection of a building in the vicinity of the armory, the actual construction to begin as soon as possible after the Farragut and Franklin needs have been met.

4. In the list of minor construction, the out-houses of the three suburban schools should be replaced by chemical closets. The main school should have first consideration because of the larger enrollment and the fact that the children are smaller.

Respectfully submitted, FRANK W. KNIGHT, IRA A. NEWELL, C. W. MCCARTHY.

Special Committee on School-Houses. The Board of Instruction passed a resolution favoring the new school house and this was later transmitted to the Council.

In the Council. A meeting of the Council was held at eight o'clock and in the absence of the Mayor who is in Washington. Councilman Yeaton presided, and there were present the full board members of the school board the majority of the delegation to the legislature and representatives of organized labor.

The report was received from the Board of Instruction, and the proposed bill which will allow the city to issue bonds in excess of the limit, for the purpose of erecting a new school house was read.

Mr. Richard Weston, representing the Central Labor Union, Messrs. F. W. Detheridge and Ernest Heywood of the legislative committee of the Metal Trades Council were all heard, and they were strong in favor of the bill and of improving the school facilities of the city which they understood was crowded at any the least.

Representative W. A. Hodgdon speaking for the members of the delegation to the legislature said that he personally favored the bill and thought that all of the delegation did. He believed in the social bond issue and he was in favor of the contract being awarded to local men and that all of the working done by local men, men who had paid at least one year's taxes. He spoke of the new school law now in the legislature.

Representative Sherburne chairman of the local spoke in favor of the bill and though the delegation were unanimous for it.

The matter of the play grounds for the Farragut school, was brought up at this time and Supt. W. H. Slayton of the school department addressed the Council, telling of the condition in that district where 360 children were supposed to play on a lot that measured a quarter of an acre building and all. He said that there was a crying need at this building of a play ground, and in reply to Councilman Yeaton if a play ground across the city would be acceptable, said that anything within a reasonable distance of the school would be gladly taken, but the plans for taking land adjacent to the building was the most feasible.

In reply to the question of Councilman Donovan as to the probable cost of a building, said that the estimated cost of a new room building at the Atlantic Heights was $75,000 and he thought that at least an eight room building should be erected on the city farm property if that was chosen as the site.

Mr. G. W. McCarthy for the school board advocated the erection of a school big enough and with plenty of ground for a proper play grounds, and said that he had been advocating a school on the city farm property for the last twelve years.

Councilman Matthews offered a resolution that the Council approve the proposed bill enabling the city to exceed its debt limit for the purpose of erecting a school sum for a sum not to exceed $75,000.

Councilman Barrett wanted the Farragut play ground included in the bill, but withdrew his request when Councilman Matthews stated that this was a matter that the Council could provide an appropriation for in the annual appropriation bill. On motion of Councilman Donovan the resolution was passed and the matter is now up to the Portsmouth delegation.

The matter of the site of the school house and its design is up to the Board of Instruction under the state laws, and the same law provides for the building by a joint committee of Board and Council.

SENATE FIGHTING RAILROAD BILL IN LAST HOURS

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, March 3.—Renewed attacks upon the league of nations and an active filibuster by the republicans against the administration program proceeded tonight as the clock ticked away the hours of the 54th Congress. Unprecedented crowds were in the galleries and followed with close attention the work of both house and senate in the session which is expected to continue on until the time of the adjournment at noon tomorrow.

In the senate the filibuster was already under way on the Emergency Defect Bill which carries with it the $750,000,000 appropriation for the railroads while the house marked time and carried on unimportant business. A republican senator said that the objections were aimed at the vast sum for the railroads, but that they expected that it would be brought to a vote, but the delay would hold up the vast amount of bills that are in line for passage before adjournment, and of which very few will be reached.

A movement on the part of the republican senators to seek a vote of disapproval from the senate on the proposed league of nations, was being considered. A republican leader Senator Lodge has drawn up a resolution and is only awaiting a favorable opportunity to present it, and while not expected to get a vote it is understood that he has the signature of members of the next senate protesting against the league.

U. S. EMPLOYMENT AGENCY PLACES
MANY SERVICE MEN

Cheerful Outlook for Spring, Says Mr. Cooney.

U. S. Employment Agent Cooney of the local office on Market street said this morning that he had positions open for men experienced in farm work and that every effort was being made to take care of the men as fast as they applied for work. The shipyards are placing about every discharged service man we send them from the office.

Miss Marguerite R. Goggin, junior examiner, in charge of the women's department, said many positions as housekeepers were available for capable women and girls at wages from $6 to $8 per week with board and room, but that the applicants for jobs in her department are reluctant to accept employment of this kind.

With large government appropriations that will be available soon, and local building projects that will be launched as soon as the weather becomes suitable, Mr. Cooney said there would be work for every able bodied man in the community. The report of the week follows:

Women's Report, Month of February—Registered, 56; help wanted, 132; referred, 17; placed, 25; transferred, 1. Week of Feb. 24 to March 1—Registered, 15; help wanted, 17; referred, 11; placed, 5; transferred, 1. STOMACH ACIDITY, INDIGESTION, GAS

Quick! Eat just one tablet of Pape's Diapiesin for instant relief.

When meals don't fit and you belch gas, acids and undigested food. When you feel lumps of distress in stomach, pain, flatulence, heartburn or headache. Here is instant relief—No waiting!

Just as soon as you eat a tablet of Pape's Diapiesin all the dyspepsia, indigestion and stomach distress ends. These pleasant, harmless tablets of Pape's Diapiesin never fail to make sick, upset stomachs feel fine at once, and they cost so little at drug stores.

SOME FREAK WAGERS

In the "good old days" extraordinary wagers were more common than they are today. In 1670, for instance, Lord Digby staked £250 that he could walk five miles round Newmarket Heath in a certain time, barefooted and stark naked, and had the misfortune of losing by the narrow margin of half a minute. The King and all the court being witnesses of the performance.

In the latter half of the 15th century a Liverpool scientist bet a brother scientist that he would read a newspaper by the light of a farthing dip at a distance of 30 feet. The wager was cheerfully accepted. The first scientist merely coated the inside of a shallow wooden box with sloping pieces of looking glass, so as to form a concave lens, placed it behind the farthing dip and easily read the small print at the distance named. The winning of the wager was witnessed by a Liverpool dockmaster, who ultimately applied the idea to light house requirements and evolved the modern reflected light. About two years ago, during a yachting trip of members of the Mersey docks and harbor board, A. W. Wither, a leading Liverpool cotton broker, was presented with a pair of wooden shoes for his birthday, and another member of the board offered to contribute a sum of money to two charities if Mr. Wither would go to the cotton exchange wearing them. For sweet charity's sake Mr. Wither appeared on "change" wearing the wooden shoes and the stakes were handed over to him.—London Answer.

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if you feel sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

Tomorrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside-bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily.

Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

LABOR EXCHANGES URGED

Washington, March 3.—In urging labor exchanges as part of our national program the United States employment service says:

"The operation of employment offices is universally recognized as a public function. Private agencies operating on a fee basis have stimulated unemployment and increased, in other, besides taking millions of dollars out of the wage earnings of the country.

"England, with one-twenty-fifth of our territory and one-half of our population, has approximately 1,500 exchanges and agencies. When it is considered that New York city alone has 600 private agencies, it would seem that 1,500 offices eventually in the United States will not be an unreasonable number. Expenditures for such agencies are an investment in industrial peace.

"Employment offices must be labor exchanges rather than simply man-power agencies. They must secure a pooling in so far as is practicable of all job opportunities and applications in the community.

"There must be no drifting back to pre-war methods of handling unemployment. A well organized, unified national system of labor exchanges is vitally necessary as a permanent part of our national program."

Navy Yard, Building No 13, March 3-15 inclusive.

SOUTH DAKOTA DANCE A PLEASANT EVENT

The dance given to the enlisted men of the U. S. S. South Dakota at the Armory on Barratt avenue last evening proved a successful affair and the large number of participants much enjoyed the occasion.

The Armory was handsomely decorated with flags and bunting, this work being done under the direction of Chief Yeoman Brown of the South Dakota and the admiral's gave evidence of artistic skill.

Marden's orchestra furnished music and Chief Yeoman Brown and Miss Georgine Messer had charge of the floor. The hostesses were Mrs. Eugene Daniels, Mrs. Thomas D. Noyes, Mrs. G. L. Hanson, Mrs. Fred Fritzell, and Mrs. William Brandon. At intermission ice cream was served.

The dance was given under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service and every effort was made by the hostesses to have the evening one of pleasure to those of the gathering.

PLEASANT EVENT

Mrs. Powell Surprised By Friends.

A pleasant surprise party was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powell at 15 School street, the gathering being in recognition of Mrs. Powell's birthday anniversary and was given by a number of her friends and co-workers at the lunch room at the navy yard.

While the guests were unexpected they were none the less welcome and after cordial greetings were exchanged music and sociability pervaded the evening. The serving of refreshments of sandwiches, ice cream assorted cake and cocoa added pleasant interest to the occasion.

Mrs. Powell, who is most popular with her associates, received numerous anniversary gifts. Her co-workers presented her with a birthday cake and a handsome center piece, and she received an easy chair from Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodard and a picture from the Messers, Woodard and Seeger.

At a late hour the guests departed, having had a delightful evening and wishing the hostess many more such pleasant anniversaries.

ARMENIAN LECTURE AT LANGDON CLUB

The John Langdon club held a gathering last evening in the North Church chapel on Middle street, the speaker being Rev. David J. Tsokolian of Van, Turkey.

He told of Armenia's past, her service to Europe, the atrocities, his escape from Van, and spoke of Armenia's national aspiration and future. Mr. Tsokolian is an educated Armenian and is now undertaking to churches in Lawrence, Mass., and Salem, N. H.

He escaped into Russia, lived and worked in Persia for two years and after six months' travel succeeded in reaching Armenia in December, 1917. His talk was full of interest and especially in view of our relief expedition to the Near East and of our possible control there. At the close of the talk lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.
